

UIC UNIVERSITY OF ILLINOIS AT CHICAGO

The University of Illinois at Chicago is a major research university offering the cultural, business and entertainment opportunities only found in a world-class city. In placing among the top research-funded institutions nationally, UIC faculty discover what others teach. UIC has 15 academic colleges including the UIC College of Medicine, which educates one in six Illinois physicians and is the largest in the nation.

UIC boasts one of the most diverse student bodies in the country, offering a cultural experience second to none with 16,000 undergraduate and 10,000 graduate and professional students.

On our 240-acre campus, you'll find 100 buildings, 5,000 trees, geothermal energy plants and two state-of-the-art fitness centers. And whether living in residence halls, near campus or commuting, you'll enjoy a busy social life. With our nationally ranked athletic teams, numerous social events, sororities and fraternities, and nearby entertainment venues, there are a lot of opportunities to have fun.

An estimated one in 10
Chicagoans with a college degree is a UIC alumnus.

- One in three Illinois pharmacists is a graduate of the UIC College of Pharmacy.
- Entrepreneur Magazine and The Princeton Review rank the College of Business Administration's undergraduate entrepreneurship program ninth in the nation.
- UIC's College of Nursing is consistently ranked among the top 10 nationally.
- UIC has two MacArthur Genius Award Winners on faculty.
- UIC graphic design graduates are recruited by industry leaders including Nike, Morningstar Inc. and The Field Museum.
- More than 40 percent of the state's dentists are graduates of UIC's College of Dentistry.
- UIC is home to Chicago's largest undergraduate engineering program. Unique co-ops and internships help students secure jobs at firms such as Microsoft, Caterpillar and Motorola.

Financial Aid and Scholarships

Last year, UIC students were awarded more than $193 million in financial aid, including $105 million in scholarships and grants and $88 million in loans and employment.

About 80% of students who applied for financial aid were awarded need-based scholarships or grant aid.

www.financialaid.uic.edu

To be considered for most university scholarships and awards, incoming students need only complete the UIC admission application. Your application is then reviewed to determine which awards may fit you. Some scholarships evaluate financial need, so students should also complete the FAFSA.

ACADEMIC OPPORTUNITIES

The UIC Honors College is home to 1,300 students. In the past, UIC honors students have won many prestigious awards including Rhodes, Truman, Gates-Cambridge and Goldwater Scholarships, as well as Fulbright and Phi Beta Kappa Graduate Fellowships.

Honors students benefit from advisers, a computer lab and a study lounge dedicated to support academic goals. With a low student-to-Faculty-Fellow ratio, honors students have the opportunity to build one-on-one relationships with faculty and advising staff members.

www.hc.uic.edu

Through UIC's Guaranteed Professional Program Admissions GPPA initiative, a select group of incoming UIC freshmen are admitted to undergraduate programs with the guarantee of admission to their choice of professional programs. GPPA students can explore diverse subject areas without the pressure of the graduate school application process.

www.gppa.uic.edu

UIC's Office of Special Scholarship Programs assists students in applying for nationally competitive scholarships. OSSP provides students with information about available awards, advice on application preparation and assistance throughout the scholarship application process.

www.uic.edu/depts/oaa/ssp

Students can choose from more than 200 study abroad programs such as African American studies in Ghana or archaeology in Egypt or Mexico to name a few. Last year, more than $75,000 in scholarships was awarded to students studying abroad.
