Please contact me if you must miss a lecture and need the handout.

Plagiarism

No plagiarism will be tolerated. This includes drafts. See the appropriate links on <http://tigger.uic.edu/~edelberg> if you are not sure what counts as plagiarism.

Papers

If you have not written a philosophy paper before, check <http://tigger.uic.edu/~edelberg> or talk to me.

If you decide to submit a draft of your paper - which I recommend - please do so no later than 1 week before the paper is due. This way, after I read the draft, we can schedule a meeting to talk about it. I would prefer not to comment on your paper via email. I will not comment on late drafts.

Word of Advice

Apart from the quizzes that are given during the discussion section (see the course syllabus), the discussion section is your time to go through the difficult material of the texts and the lectures with your peers. I do not intend to reiterate the lecture. Please use your time wisely and participate. Before coming to the discussion, it might be a good idea to write down a couple of questions, thoughts, comments, etc. you would like to bring up in class. Please do not hesitate to ask questions.

Students with Disabilities

Students with disabilities who require accommodations for access and participation in this course must be registered with the Office of Disability Services [(312) 413 2183 or (312) 413 0123]. Any such students should introduce themselves to me no later than by the end of the second week.
